THREE DAYS TO GO !

Champions descend on Coonamble from across NSW

Champions from across New South Wales are starting to make their way to Coonamble for the 55th Coonamble Rodeo & Campdraft. Those attending include Mark Palmer from Quirindi who is the current ABCRA Saddle Bronc Champion, Dee Heinemann from Gunnedah who is the current champion Bareback Rider, Nichole Amey from Willow Tree who is the current Breakaway Roping Champion and current leader in all round Cowgirl title and Tom McCullum from Manilla who is the current Bull Riding Champion. A delegation from Sydney is also making their way to the Central West with Campbelltown City Council a major sponsor of the event. Campdrafting entries closed within days of opening in early May and there are well in excess of 1100 runs over the three days.

Every Hotel and Club Coonamble has arranged live entertainment for the weekend so be sure to see Alana Potter @ the Bowling Club, Glen Clare @ the Sons of the Soil Hotel, Cowboy DJ and Matt O'Leary @ the Terminus Hotel, Mechanical Bull and Jared Scott & Route 67 @ the Bucking Bull Hotel, and Mechanical Bull at the Commercial Hotel as well as Breakfasts. There is also the ever popular 'Bush Poets Breakfast' at the historic Plaza Theatre on the Sunday morning along with a two day exhibition of country artwork at the annual patchwork and quilting display held at the Coonamble library.

Rodeo Association President, Paul Wheelhouse is excited by the prospect of a large crowd with the weather forecast looking promising..... 'our food stalls at the event are all run by community groups so the larger the crowd the better it is for them and for the town'. Working bees over the last two weekends have installed the necessary yards and other infrastructure needed to run the event and made final preparations.

The 2010 Landmark Coonamble Rodeo & Campdraft gets underway at sunrise on Saturday 12th June 2010 with the commencement of the Campdrafting and continues with a full Rodeo on Saturday and Sunday with the Junior Rodeo held on the Monday.
