HUGE NUMBERS & FINE WEATHER FOR COONAMBLE !

For the first time in over five years the Coonamble Rodeo & Campdraft had fine weather which resulted in large numbers of spectators and an equally large pool of competitors.

Some fine weather, feature events and fierce bulls saw more than 4000 people through the gates over the 3 day event eclipsing recent years and bringing a smile to the faces of the Rodeo Committee. Saturday there were 415 entries and Sunday 503 entries. On Monday 224 entries competed in the Junior Jackpot Rodeo. The Campdraft had over 1200 entries. Sunday was a massive day at the event with the carpark overflowing. Foundation member John Lundholm inducted David Burtenshaw as a life member of the Rodeo Association for his dedication to the event. A new event this year, the 'Poley Saddle' ride proved popular with the crowds. Full results will be released shortly
